Without limitation, bidders or contractors shall not be hired under the circumstances set forth below:

- (a) Conflict between consulting activities and procurement of goods, works or services (consulting or general). A bidder or a contractor that has been engaged by the Procuring Entity to provide goods, works, or services for the organization, and each of its affiliates, shall be disqualified from providing consulting services related to those goods, works or services. Conversely, a bidder or a contractor hired to provide consulting services for the preparation or implementation of a project, and each of its affiliates, shall be disqualified from subsequently providing goods, works or general services resulting from or directly related to the contractor's consulting services for such preparation or implementation.

- (b) Conflict among consulting assignments: Neither, bidders or contractors (including their personnel and sub-consultants) nor any of their affiliates shall be hired for any assignment that, by its nature, may be in conflict with another assignment of the bidder or contractor. However, when this obligation has been waived, the Procuring Entity shall still request a sworn / solemn statement issued by the interested party in front of a judicial or administrative authority, a notary or a qualified professional body from the applicant's country. Nevertheless, the Procuring Entity – at its own criteria- keeps the right to request bidders documents proving their compliance to the eligibility conditions.
- 5.13 Contracts may not be awarded to applicants or bidders who, during the procurement procedure:

PART 2

Section VI. Description of the project

U.S.

1. Description of the Project.

The Southern African Development Community (SADC) is a Regional Economic Community comprising 16 Member States; Angola, Botswana, Union of Comoros, Democratic Republic of Congo, Eswatini, Lesotho, Madagascar, Malawi, Mauritius, Mozambique, Namibia, Seychelles, South Africa, Swaziland, Tanzania, Zambia, and Zimbabwe. SADC is founded upon the SADC Treaty (1992) and is committed to Regional Integration and Poverty Reduction within Southern Africa region through economic development backed by durable peace and stability. It aspires to build a region in which there will be a high degree of harmonisation and rationalisation, to enable the pooling of resources to achieve collective self-reliance in order to improve the living standards of the people of the Region.

The transformation of the Southern African Development Coordination Conference (SADCC) (which was coordinating conferences) to the Southern African Development Community (SADC) marked a significant milestone in the establishment of SADC Secretariat. The SADC Secretariat mandates are as follows:

- Strategic planning and management of the programmes of SADC
- Implementation of decisions of the Summit and the Council
- Organisation and management of SADC meetings
- Financial and general administration
- Representation and promoting of SADC, and
- Coordination and harmonisation of policies and strategies of Member States.

The Secretariat has considerably grown in the past few years, with more staff, higher budgets and increasing numbers of projects, which place a huge strain on the Secretariat systems that need to keep up with the pace of growth and expansion.

Whilst SADC Secretariat has recorded some remarkable achievements since its transformation, progress has been made in the areas Strategy Development/planning reform, Organisational structures to support the revised RISDP. Difficulties and constraints have also been encountered. These include:

- a. Lack of change management strategies that are aimed to create a new culture post reforms/transformation from the SADCC into SADC.
- b. Lack of appropriate change management communication strategy mechanisms that are aimed to inculcate the organisational identity through values system.
- c. Lack of synergy between the various directorates and units which creates "Silo Organisation" resulting in an ineffective "island" mode of working
- d. Absence of Knowledge Management strategy, procedures, systems and structures has a negative bearing on the business continuity and long term sustainability.

As the Secretariat strides forward into the next strategic journey, it is an opportune time to consolidate the strengths and to transform the organisational culture that support the new way of doing business, so as to steer the Secretariat to the next level of excellence.

There is a need to ensure more focused Executive-led change initiatives aimed at strengthening SADC Secretariat Organisational identity. This is to ensure that the organisation is operating as one entity with a common shared Vision; Mission and organisational Culture.

To address the organisational issues identified above SADC Secretariat has adopted the Integrated Institutional Capacity-Building (IICB) Programme supported by the European Union (EU) as approved by the European Commission in October 2017. The estimated total cost of this action is €6.7 million over a duration period of 48 months.

The overall objective is to accelerate progress towards implementation of SADC regional integration.
